If the present grant-in aid of Rs 7 covers the whole monthly cost of the school, it is difficult to see in what respect it is a private institution. Private liberality seems to bear no portion of the cost. ~~If the School is taken over by~~ It is not clear from the DG's letter whether fees are not levied & how the money is spent

6 If the school is taken over by Govt & made into a Govt institution it may perhaps cost more than 10 Rs p.m. Thyamagondlu is however an important requested that government will be so good as to permit the employment of Mohiddin Beig, aged 28, who has worked at Tyamagondlu for the last five years and brought the school to its present flourishing condition, as the teacher of the Govern. ment School. As he has not passed the Lower Secondary Examination, he will in the first instance be appointed on probation in recognition of his success as a teacher His Confirmation will depend on his passing the Examination within a reasonable time. For having brought the School to its present efficient state he deserves Special Consideration at the hands of Government

3 I request that the grant-in-aid of Rs 7 saved from the Aided School at Tyamagondlu may be transferred to the Hindustani Night School started in the Bangalore City by the Central Mahomedan Association more than a year ago The School teaches upto the II Standard There are 29 students in the School, 10 of whom are studying English. The services of a Matriculated teacher have been engaged. The monthly expenditure of the School amounts to Rs 28. A grant of Rs 10 was recommended for the School in my letter No 87 A 49/571 dated 2nd April 190 but

I trust as not mentioned - under such circumstances I regret omission to transmit the grant of 100 given the Indians I shall recommend to the first favorable
